BROWN & PARSONS, BOOKS AND STATIONERY,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,
182 Main Street, corner of Asylum,
HARTFORD.

Brown & Parsons would respectfully invite the attention of Merchants, Teachers, and the public generally, to their Stock, which will be found to embrace all the principal School, Hymn, and Music Books, in general use; also the most extensive variety of American, French and English Stationery, ever brought to this city.

In their MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT, may be found a large stock of

of the most eminent authors, which will be kept constantly on hand. Arrangements are made to receive the PRINCIPAL NEW PUBLICATIONS as soon as published.

B. & P. are determined, by strict attention to their business, and keeping on hand a full assortment of the most desirable goods, selling them at REASONABLE PRICES, and engaging that every article sold by them shall prove as is represented, or may be returned, to merit a continuance of the public patronage, which has been bestowed upon them for the last twelve years.

Orders from the country will be as faithfully executed, as if the person were present.

N. B. Arrangements have been made to order any American or Foreign Work which may be wanted.

Statutes of Connecticut.

SWIFT'S DIGEST,

Revised by HENRY DUTTON.

NILES' CIVIL OFFICER,

Last Edition,

CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

BROWN & PARSONS.

Connecticut Reports.

The first five Volumes of the above having been re-printed, the subscribers are enabled to supply full sets at the publishers' lowest price.

Either Volume will be sold separately.

BROWN & PARSONS.

ASSESSMENT LISTS,

Constantly on hand and for sale in any quantity, by

BROWN & PARSONS.

Law and Probate Blanks.

The subscribers, having purchased of the proprietor of the Courant Office his stock of Blanks, will hereafter keep on hand a full assortment of LAW and PROBATE BLANKS. Purchasers may rely upon their being PRINTED in the BEST manner and on FINE PAPER.

For Sale by

PRESS OF CASE, TIFFANY & CO.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

THE Connecticut Register again makes its New Year's appearance, and bespeaks the public patronage. The publishers have been at great pains and expense in making this annual full and accurate, as well as an ornamental appendage to the centre table. They believe the information contained, varied as much as practicable from year to year, will be useful to every intelligent family, especially in informing and enlarging the minds of children and youth. Many an otherwise idle moment may be thus usefully employed.

Among the improvements, this Register contains

A column for High Water.

A clear and full arrangement of Calendar days.

Votes for Governor from 1819 to 1849.

A List of Senators under the District system, from 1830 to 1849, with the number of votes, and the names and number of votes of unsuccessful candidates.

School Society Committees, and funds appropriated to Schools.

Number of Births, Deaths, and Marriages.

Date when each member of Congress entered that body.

Post routes, and a reference of each post-office in the State to its particular route, with mail days.

Governors and Capitals of the several States, &c.

Literary Institutions and Scientific and Benevolent Associations were given in full last year.

It is hoped some measures will soon be taken to render it unnecessary to burden our columns with the names of so many Justices of Peace, &c., and thus afford room for a greater variety of matter.

We tender thanks to those who made prompt and accurate returns for the Register of 1850, and to such we shall generally send blanks for the Register for 1851. We wish to secure the services of some faithful and accurate man in each town to make annual returns, to whom we offer a Register as compensation. The names of such may be sent to the publishers, and they will be furnished with blanks.

Persons entitled to a Register for 1850, who do not receive it, will please send us word.

Hartford, Dec. 31, 1849.

Statistics of Towns.

The political character of towns is given, according to the plurality vote for Governor in 1849. The several columns show the times of Annual Meeting. Legal Distances from Hartford and New Haven; Grand Lists for 1848-9; Taxes on list for 1849; (some towns have one tax for town expenses and highways, while others have separate taxes for each, as specified;) Births, Deaths, and Marriages, (most of which are for the year terminating Aug. 5, 1849. The law is defective in not affixing a penalty for neglecting to make returns for births, &c., within a specified time, and in not providing other means of obtaining them, as in the enumeration of the children.) The population of the towns was given in the Register for 1849.

STATE PRISON DIRECTORS.

Zebulon Brockway, Lyme; Charles J. Russ, Hartford.

Amendments to the Constitution.

1. The JUDGES OF PROBATE shall be appointed by the electors residing in the several probate districts, and qualified to vote for representatives therein, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

2. The JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, for the several towns in this State, shall be appointed by the electors in such towns; and the time and manner of their election, the number for each town, and the period for which they shall hold their offices, shall be prescribed by law.

3. An election for Delegates to a CONVENTION TO REVISE AND AMEND THE CONSTITUTION of this state, shall be holden on the first Tuesday of September, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, in the same manner and under the same regulations, as meetings for the choice of representatives to the General Assembly are now holden, provided only, that the electors of each town may select their delegates from the state at large. Each town shall be entitled to the same number of delegates to said convention as the number of representatives to which it is entitled in the General Assembly, and the delegates shall receive the same remuneration as is allowed to said representatives. All electors qualified to vote for representatives shall be entitled to vote for delegates to said convention. Said convention shall be holden in the Representatives' Hall, in Hartford, on the first Tuesday in Oct., in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one; it shall appoint a president, and such other officers as it may deem expedient, who shall be paid a reasonable compensation for their services, its debates shall be public; it shall keep a journal of its proceedings and publish the same; it shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, and shall have all other powers necessary to the proper execution of its functions.

The revised and amended Constitution, framed by said convention, shall be submitted to the electors of this state, in such manner, and at such time, not less than three or more than six months from the rising of said convention, as said convention shall provide; and if said revised and amended Constitution shall be approved by a majority of the electors, it shall from and after the time such approval has been duly ascertained, and publicly proclaimed in a manner to be provided by said convention, be established and ordained as the only Constitution of the State of Connecticut.

[An amendment was proposed, but not carried, to extend the terms of Senators to three years; which if adopted would have tended to elevate the character of that body.]

These amendments are to be acted upon by the General Assembly in May, 1850; and if approved by two thirds of each House, they are to be sent to the people; and if a majority of the electors give a vote of approval, they become a part of the Constitution.

CORNELL'S GLOBE.

THIS beautiful little Globe has received the sanction and recommendation of almost every teacher or friend of education who has examined it. Summer and winter, day and night, inclination and declination, latitude, longitude, meridians, zones, sunrise and sunset, length of days and nights, &c. &c., are all beautifully explained, with this simple instrument. No school should be without this Globe; and as the price is so low no district can say they CANNOT AFFORD IT, and no district should refuse to place it where the children may be enlightened, as they cannot be by a mere description from the best teacher.

Price only $3.00.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE CONNECTICUT REGISTER again makes its New Year's appearance, and bespeaks the public patronage. The publishers have been at great pains and expense in making this annual full and accurate, as well as an ornamental appendage to the centre table. They believe the information contained, varied as much as practicable from year to year, will be useful to every intelligent family, especially in informing and enlarging the minds of children and youth. Many an otherwise idle moment may be thus usefully employed.

The population of the Towns of the State is given according to the Censuses of 1810, 1820, 1830, 1840, and 1850. The official returns of 1850 may make a small variation for a few towns. The gross receipts of the several post offices in the state, and the compensation allowed to post masters, we have obtained from the Department at Washington. As indicating the prosperity of the state, by comparing the census returns, which exhibit a greater increase of population during the last 10, than during the previous 40 years, and the post office returns, which exhibit an increase of receipts, of at least 50 per cent. during the last 3 years, these articles must be regarded, by every intelligent man as of great value for future reference, particularly in reference to the new post office law.

As by the recent change in the constitution, Justices of Peace are to be elected by the people, and the number fixed by law is the same as Jurors of each town, that number is prefixed to each list of Justices. We would thank Town Clerks to send to the publishers, by their Representatives, lists of Justices chosen in April.

Some part of the Register goes to press by Nov. 15. consequently some returns came too late. When meetings are held after 1st Monday of Nov., two returns should be made. The towns are as much interested as we are, in having the Register complete, and when they find it not so, they can know where the fault lies. In every such instance we sent blanks to both Post master and Town Clerk.

We tender thanks to those who made prompt and accurate returns for the Register of 1851, and to such we shall generally send blanks for the Register for 1852. We wish to secure the services of some faithful and accurate man in each town to make annual returns, to whom we offer a Register as compensation. The names of such may be sent to the publishers, and they will be furnished with blanks.

Persons entitled to a Register for 1851, who do not receive it, will please send us word, as we do not send except as ordered.

HARTFORD, Dec. 31, 1850.

HARTFORD:

Office, Corner of Main and Asylum Streets.

State of Connecticut,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE.

HARTFORD, Oct. 14, 1850.

THIS may certify, That the Capital Stock of the CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, amounting to Two Hundred Thousand Dollars (200,000,) has all been paid in, or invested in securities of undoubted character, which have been passed and approved by their Board of Directors, and by me, agreeably to the requirements of the Charter. The Legislature having thrown extraordinary and unusual guards around this Charter for the protection alike of the Company and the public, the strength, ability and well invested capital of the institution, are in my opinion unsurpassed by any Life Insurance Company in this State, or perhaps in this country.

R. G. PINNEY,
Comptroller of Public Accounts,
State of Connecticut.

"LIFE INSURANCE

IS THE POOR MAN'S WEALTH, AND A GOOD INVESTMENT FOR THE CAPITALIST."

1. Husbands and Fathers may make provision after their death for their widows and children.
2. The young may make provision for themselves in their declining years.
3. Parents may provide endowments for their children.
4. Creditors may compensate the loss which the death of their debtors might occasion.
5. Borrowers to secure, in case of death, a fund to repay the loan.
6. All who have a pecuniary interest in the existence of a life, to guard that interest from total loss through failure of life.

"Life Insurance is truly styled a Savings Bank for the widow and the orphan, so managed that the rich and the poor may alike avail themselves of its benefits."

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

As there has been delay in making returns in season to enable us to issue the Register as early as we desire, we must request, that for the Register for 1850, they be made, as far as practicable, as early as the first of Nov., as soon after that time, some of the sheets must go to press; and if any fail to see some things which they returned, they are advised that those sheets were printed before the returns came to hand. Where the town meetings are held after Nov. 1. the returns should be made as complete as possible, and forwarded so as to reach us by Nov. 1, and the town officers chosen at the annual town meeting, sent on a separate sheet, immediately after said meeting. To be enabled to make early returns of professional men, school society officers, postmasters, &c. in the different parts of the town, whoever prepares them, should make the necessary inquiry on public occasions, when people from different parts of the town are brought together.

As an encouragement, we will give a copy of the Register of 1850, to any person who will make to us, by Nov. 1., a full and accurate return of such officers and statistics as are required, viz. Clerks of Probate; County Surveyors; Town officers, Town Taxes, Time annual meeting; School society, times of meeting, officers, proportion of deposit fund used, and other public provision made for schools, by local funds or taxes; Cities; Boroughs; Clergy and Physicians. An additional copy will be given for returns of Banks; Savings Banks; Insurance Companies, stating the Capital, the amount insured, losses within the previous year, and dividends; Rail Roads, with capital and dividends; officers of Customs, amount of duties and compensation of Collectors. We will also send a Register in exchange for any City Directory for 1849-50, which may be forwarded to us by mail. Colonels who send us Rosters of their Regiments, and clerks or publishers who send us printed minutes of ecclesiastical and medical bodies for 1849, and college catalogues, with officers of Literary Societies, shall also be entitled to a Register. MR. SAMUEL GREEN, who, for 58 years, has made his annual New Year's visits to his numerous friends and patrons, having made an arrangement for a union of Green's and Bradley's Registers, relinquishes the active duties of editor, though he retains a pecuniary interest in the sale of the Connecticut Register.

His successor, who has assisted in preparing Bradley's Register for two years past, has used his best efforts to render the Connecticut Register worthy of general patronage; with what success the public must decide. He has endeavored to obtain complete returns, and has so far succeeded, as to be able to give the town officers from every town in the State, and most of the school society officers.

In addition to the information contained in previous Registers, the editor has given a sketch of the volumes of Archives of the State, recently bound and indexed. An account of the organization of the Superior Court in 1711, and a complete list of the Judges from that time to the present. Clerks of Probate; County Surveyors; Town and highway taxes on the dollar; School Societies with dates of organization, school officers and visitors, and number of children returned in 1847 and 1848: The income of each post office, and the compensation of post masters; And more full notice of the literary, benevolent and philanthropic institutions in the State. Hale Monument and the Wadsworth Atheneum also adorn the pages.

The style in which the printers have "got up" the Register, is highly creditable to them. By using small type, the quantity of matter is increased one third, at the same time, the distinctness of the impression renders it entirely legible.

PREDICTIONS OF THE WEATHER. It ought to be known that predictions of the weather are inserted in Almanacs, not by the astronomer, but according to the convenience of the printer, as he has vacant lines on the page. No man can minutely predict the state of the weather for the ensuing year. Astronomers have demonstrated that the moon has no controlling influence over the weather, or the growth of plants.

Archives of Connecticut.

BESIDES the Records of the State, and the various manuscript volumes in the office of Secretary of State, there is a great quantity of papers which have been accumulating since the settlement of the Colony of Connecticut, some of which were filed, and others in disorder. About fifty thousand of these have been arranged and pasted into books, where they are easily accessible. This was done under the direction of the Connecticut Historical Society, by Sylvester Judd of Northampton, who indexed a few volumes; for the expenses of which, the General Assembly made an appropriation to the Society. To complete the work of indexing, the Assembly authorised the Secretary of State to employ a clerk. Two or three volumes were indexed under direction of Mr. Sec'y Tyler, by a clerk who was incompetent to the task. In the fall of 1846, Mr. Secretary Bradley, who well understood the character of the work to be done, employed and gave suitable directions to Wm. S. Porter of Farmington, to continue the indexing, who has been continued by the present Secretary, Mr. Robertson.

The papers were arranged under heads as follows.

Militia, 5 volumes.

War, 10 volumes, including Indian, French, Spanish wars, &c.

Revolutionary War, 37 volumes, of great interest and importance.

Indians, 2 volumes.

Private Controversies, 6 volumes; useful in tracing family histories.

Ecclesiastical, 15 volumes, giving a history of societies and ecclesiastical affairs, as yet but little explored.

Towns & Lands, 10 volumes; of great value in compiling the histories of the several towns, their settlement, organization, &c., &c.

Susquehanna and Western Lands, 1 volume, showing our claims in Pennsylvania, and the Western Reserve, &c.

Colonial Boundaries, 3 volumes, in which are copies of many valuable early historical documents.

Foreign Correspondence, 2 volumes, of great interest. The first contains original letters from Kings, Queens, Dukes, Lords, &c, and the second, letters on foreign affairs, &c., many of which relate to the Charter and rights and privileges of the colony.

Trade and Manufacturers, 2 volumes.

Travel, 3 volumes, Highways, Ferries and Bridges.

Industry, 2 volumes, Agriculture, Manufactures, Fisheries and Mines.

Colleges and Schools, 2 volumes.

Courts, Civil Officers, Laws, &c., 3 volumes.¹

Court Papers, 1 volume. There are Court papers still in files sufficient for 20 volumes.

Insolvent Debtors, 1 volume.

Lotteries and Divorces, 1 volume.

Crimes and Misdemeanors, 6 volumes.

Miscellaneous, 2 volumes. Vol. 1 contains papers relating to Sir Edmond Andross; the Union with New Haven; Commissioners from England; Appeals to England, &c. Vol. 2 contains papers relating to Slavery; Houses burned; Briefs for Charitable Collections; Inquests; Small Pox, &c.

Journals of the two Houses, Conventions, &c., 3 volumes.

Votes for State Officers, 3 volumes.

Finance and Currency, 5 volumes.

Finances, 2 volumes.

Reports of the Comptroller, 3 volumes.

Reports of Treasurer and Auditor, 2 volumes.

Grand Lists, 2 volumes.

Miscellaneous Statistics, 1 volume.

These 138 volumes, embracing about 50,000 papers, are by no means the whole. They include very few papers of a more recent date than 1790; and from that date back to 1706, are many papers still in files, most of which should be arranged in volumes and indexed.

The indexes are full and complete. Every paper is carefully read, and an analysis given under appropriate heads in the general index, and alphabetical lists are given of the names of all important persons and places. And on a page preceding the index of each volume, is given a synopsis of the index; so that, at a single glance, the contents or subjects of the volume may be seen.

Thus facilities are rendered to any who wish to investigate any subject pertaining to the history of this commonwealth; or town or family histories; for here are many papers relating to the history of every town and almost every ancient family in the state. Indeed, there is scarcely a family among us, descended from an early settler, who will not find something in these volumes relating to his ancestors. And every town ought to employ an agent to investigate their town history, as here set forth. And if our statesmen would more eschew party politics, and study these volumes, they would be wiser, and better qualified to discharge their several duties.

Superior Court,

AND ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN CONNECTICUT.

At the first organization of the government in 1639, the General Court exercised judicial functions. The history and time of the organization of Courts is given in the following extracts from the records:—

Oct. 1665. To prevent further trouble and charge to the court; It is ordered that 2 Courts of Assistants, consisting of 7 Assistants, at least, be held at Hartford yearly, the one on Tuesday before the General Assembly in May, the other on Tuesday before the General Assembly in October; unto which Courts there shall be liberty of appeal from the respective County Courts: which said Courts of Assistants are empowered to hear and determine such appeals as shall be orderly presented as before: and likewise, all capital crimes respecting life, limb, or banishment, shall be tried at those said Courts of Assistants: and it is also ordered that in all appeals to the Court of Assistants, these shall be by a jury, if the nature of the case require. [The Oct. Court was afterwards held in New Haven.]

The Governor presided at the Court.

Oct. 1681. The Court of Assistants was vested with Admiralty powers.

May, 1703. Ordered and enacted that the Courts of Assistants * * * shall consist of 7 Assistants, or 5 at least to make a quorum. * * And the Assistants to attend the said Courts to be, from time to time, appointed by the General Assembly.

Under this arrangement, the Assistants in New Haven and Fairfield Counties, &c. held the Court in New Haven; and those in Hartford and New London Counties, the Court in Hartford.

Oct. 1704. Ordered and enacted, that the Governor or Deputy Governor, with 6 of the Assistants, shall hold the Courts of Assistants, &c.

May, 1711. Act for establishing SUPERIOR COURTS, &c.

Whereas, it has been found, in many respects, very inexpedient and chargeable, to have but 2 places, as well as but 2 terms, annually, for holding the Superior Courts of Common pleas, commonly Called the Court of Assistants: for the prevention of which, be it

Enacted, &c. that there shall be a Superior Court of Judicature, over this colony, to be held and kept annually at the respective times and places in this act hereafter mentioned, by one Chief Judge, and 4 other Judges, any 3 of whom to be a quorum, who shall have cognizance of all pleas real, personal, or mixed, as well all pleas of the Crown, and all matters relating to the conservation of the peace, and punishment of offenders; as civil causes or actions between party and party, and between her majesty and any of her subjects; whether the same do concern the realty, and relate to any right of freehold and inheritance, or whether the same do concern the personalty, and relate to matters of debt, contract, damage, or personal injury; and also all mixed actions which concern both realty and personalty; brought before them by appeal or review, writ of error, or otherwise, as the law directs, &c.

The act fixes the times and places of holding the Courts in the counties of Hartford, New Haven, New London and Fairfield. The judges were compensated by the day.

May, 1714. Judges were not allowed to sit in judgment in Counties where they were Judges of County or Probate Courts; and subsequently in cases of appeals from their own decisions in said Courts.

HALE MONUMENT.

INSCRIPTION.

CAPT. NATHAN HALE,

WAS BORN AT

COVENTRY.

June 6th, 1755.

His early youth gave promise of greatness. He graduated at Yale College, at the early age of eighteen, with the highest honors as a scholar, and no less high character as a man. In the spring of 1775, he joined the American army as a volunteer, and immediately received the commission of a Captain. He soon distinguished himself, for his uncommon abilities, patriotism, and military discipline.

Gen. Washington desirous of ascertaining the order, numbers, and contemplated movements of the British army, then on Long Island, requested some one to undertake the service.

Captain HALE accepted the dangerous trust, and had completed the survey, and almost regained the American camp, when he was arrested. He was taken immediately before Sir William Howe, the British commander, who, without even the form of a trial, ordered him to be hung the next morning. He died on the 22d of Sept. 1776, regretting that he had but "one life to lose for his country."

The monument, in the public cemetery, South Coventry, was erected in 1846, at a cost of more than $4,000. It is of Quincy granite, finely wrought, after a chaste and unique design, by Henry Austin, Architect, under the superintendence of Solomon Willard, Architect of Bunker Hill Monument; and stands on a commanding eminence, overlooking lake Waugombaug on the west, and the flourishing village of South Coventry on the east. The first efforts towards the erection of this monument were made in 1833. '4. Congress was repeatedly petitioned for an appropriation, without effect, when the Hale Monument Association resolved to undertake it by subscription, and accomplished it with the assistance of an appropriation of $1250 by this state.

CORNELL'S GLOBE.

THIS beautiful little Globe has received the sanction and recommendation of almost every teacher or friend of education who has examined it. Summer and winter, day and night, inclination and declination, latitude, longitude, meridians, zones, sunrise and sunset, length of days and nights, &c. &c., are all beautifully explained, with this simple instrument. No school should be without this Globe; and as the price is so low, no district can say they CANNOT AFFORD IT, and no district should refuse to place it where the children may be enlightened, as they cannot be by a mere description from the best teacher.

Price only $3.00.

HARTFORD:
PUBLISHED BY BROWN AND PARSONS,
CORNER OF MAIN AND ASYLUM STS.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE CONNECTICUT REGISTER again makes its New Year's appearance, and bespeaks the public patronage. We have been at great pains and expense in making this annual full and accurate, as well as an ornamental appendage to the center-table. We believe the information contained, varied as much as practicable from year to year, will be useful to every intelligent family, especially in informing and enlarging the minds of children and youth. Many an otherwise idle moment may be thus usefully employed.

The official returns of the population of the towns of the State which we expected to give in this Register, have not been published at Washington. They will appear next year. Statistics of Town Expenses are given, which exhibit the fact that the larger part of our public expenses, besides Roads and Bridges, are the results of intemperance, in the forms of pauperism, criminal prosecutions, &c.

The number of Jurors in the several towns was newly apportioned by the last Legislature; and as the number of Justices of Peace is the same as that of Jurors, the number is given in connection with the Justices.

Some part of the Register goes to press by Nov. 15, consequently some returns came too late. When meetings are held after 1st Monday of Nov., two returns should be made. The towns are as much interested as we are, in having the Register complete, and when they find it not so, they can know where the fault lies. In every such instance we sent blanks to both Post master and Town Clerk.

We tender thanks to those who made prompt and accurate returns for the Register of 1852, and to such we shall generally send blanks for the Register for 1853. We wish to secure the services of some faithful and accurate man in each town to make annual returns, to whom we offer a Register as compensation. The names of such may be sent to us, and they will be furnished with blanks.

Persons entitled to a Register for 1852, who wish for it but do not receive it, will please send us word, and it will be forwarded as they direct. We do not send unless such directions are given.

If any errors appear, particularly on the Calendar pages, we shall be much obliged to have them pointed out to us.

HARTFORD, Dec. 30, 1851.

Town Statistics.

We intended to present the population of the towns corrected from official documents, but the returns are not published. The Register for 1851 contained the population of the towns at each decennial period since 1810, the earliest census of towns we have been able to find. The Grand List of 1850 is the first under the new System, which may easily be compared with the List of 1849 in Register for 1851. The Town expenses which we present, will be found valuable. We make 3 heads, Roads and Bridges, Pauperism, and other Expenses, that it may be seen, by omitting Roads and Bridges, that pauperism constitutes more than half our town expenses.

HARTFORD:

State of Connecticut,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE.

HARTFORD, Oct. 14, 1850.

THIS may certify, That the Capital Stock of the CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, amounting to Two Hundred Thousand Dollars, (200,000,) has all been paid in, or invested in securities of undoubted character, which have been passed and approved by their Board of Directors, and by me, agreeably to the requirements of the Charter. The Legislature having thrown extraordinary and unusual guards around this Charter, for the protection alike of the Company and the public, the strength, ability and well invested capital of the institution, are in my opinion unsurpassed by any Life Insurance Company in this State, or perhaps in this country.

R. G. PINNEY,
Comptroller of Public Accounts,
State of Connecticut.

"LIFE INSURANCE

IS THE POOR MAN'S WEALTH, AND A GOOD INVESTMENT FOR THE CAPITALIST."

1. Husbands and Fathers may make provision after their death for their widows and children.
2. The young may make provision for themselves in their declining years.
3. Parents may provide endowments for their children.
4. Creditors may compensate the loss which the death of their debtors might occasion.
5. Borrowers to secure, in case of death, a fund to repay the loan.
6. All who have a pecuniary interest in the existence of a life, to guard that interest from total loss through failure of life.

"Life Insurance is truly styled a Savings Bank for the widow and the orphan, so managed that the rich and the poor may alike avail themselves of its benefits."
